

19 December 2018

As part of the State Services Commission's Inquiry into the Use of External Security Consultants, WorkSafe New Zealand is proactively releasing the Inquiry's summary of findings relating to WorkSafe's identified engagement of (or with) External Security Consultants.

Provider(s)	Purpose(s)	Summary
Icaras Ltd Corporate Risks Ltd Axcenic (ICT) Insomnia (ICT) Wellington Investigations Ltd West Document & Investigation Tony Lowe Investigations Ltd Trademark Investigations	Physical and site security Process serving Locating witnesses	WorkSafe reviewed financial transactions since its establishment in 2014, and engaged with relevant personnel. WorkSafe identified the use of a variety of security firms, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- security guard services, alarm monitoring, site assessments and audits</li> <li>- serving of legal documents</li> <li>- investigating the location of witnesses</li> <li>- An electronic investigation into the organisation SafePlus to ascertain if they operated any products or services that used the name SafePlus (as part of due diligence activities prior to lodging a trademark application).</li> </ul> WorkSafe did not identify any interactions with TCIL or its associated entities.